

MACLAY

MUST GO SAYS PRESIDENT OF CIVIL SERVICE.

REPLY TO THE HISTORIAN'S DEMANDS.

SAYS THE POWER OF REMOVAL

Reats With Secretary of Navy—Object of Rule Requiring Hearing and Notice.

Washington, Dec. 25.—President John R. Proctor of the Civil Service commission, today replying to Edgar S. Maclay said:

"Your separation from the service according to the facts in your case, as they appeared in the press, was made upon the order of the order of the Secretary of the Navy in whom the power of removal rests. The demand for your resignation followed by your removal upon the direction of the President through the Secretary of the Navy, was not in violation of the Civil Service act and rules, in view of the well known facts in your case. The object of the rule requiring notice and hearing was to prevent political removals or removals upon secret charges. No issue of this kind is involved in your case."

CAKE WALK

Enjoyed by President Theo. Roosevelt Who Celebrated Christmas Day With His Children.

Washington, Dec. 26.—An old fashioned cake walk with President Roosevelt as the center figure ended the Christmas festivities in the East room of the White House last night. Those who witnessed the jolly affair say that the President was a stunning success as a cake walker, prancing through many marvelous steps with the airiest grace imaginable. Senator Lodge was second only to the President as a rag time performer and the Senator's son John Cabot Lodge, completed the trio of terpsichorean stars. After the cake walk the President joined with great glee in the steps of "Sir Roger De Coverley" and then played "tag" with the children.

COAL SHORTAGE.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 26.—Seventy-five vessels are waiting at Lambert's point for coal cargoes. Railroad people say the present coal famine is the worst ever known. On account of shortage the Seaboard Air line has been forced to convert coal engines into wood burners.

ALEXANDER J. CASSATT.

Mr. A. J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania railroad, who is the originator of the gigantic enterprise which includes tunneling under the Hudson river, New York city and the East river and establishing a terminus on the eastern end of Long Island, is one of the most progressive railroad men in the country.

ELECTROCUTED

Was a Prominent Banker at Akron— Shock Caused Mr. Wheeler's Instant Death.

Akron, O., Dec. 26.—David P. Wheeler, a prominent banker and capitalist of this city, was electrocuted. He had been at the Citizens' National bank, of which he was cashier, with Jacob Koch, a director, examining some correspondence. Mr. Koch left after they had concluded their business and Mr. Wheeler went to the vault to lock it up. In one hand he held an electric bulb on a long wire and with the other grasped the handle of the steel door. The coating on the wire had been rubbed off and owing to a crossed wire the light was heavily charged. A current being formed with the steel vault, the shock was sufficient to produce instant death.

Mrs. McKinley's Condition. Canton, O., Dec. 26.—Mrs. McKinley spent a quiet day at her home. She was urged to join the Barber family in their Christmas dinner at the old Saxton homestead, but she declined to do so. She did not wish to be so forcibly reminded of the Christmas days of the past as she would be by such a dinner. Mrs. McKinley's condition was good, or better, than it has been since the tragedy. Relatives who see her often state she shows gradual improvement. She remembered many of her friends with little Christmas gifts and she received flowers and presents from all over the country.

A Slugging Match. Cincinnati, Dec. 26.—Larry Temple, of New York, knocked out Eddie Kennedy, of Pittsburgh, in the fourth round before the Abbey Athletic club here. The contest was devoid of science owing to the men trying continually for a knock out and it developed into a slugging match in which Temple got the best of his opponent.

Chinaman Slain. West Superior, Wis., Dec. 26.—Charles Yim, a Chinese laundryman, was murdered in his place of business. The Chinaman was discovered lying in a pool of blood in the rear of his laundry with a piece of gas pipe beside him. His skull was crushed in and he died soon after. A family living above the laundry say they heard sounds of a scuffle and the laundryman calling for help.

HOUSE CAUCUS

Of Democratic Members of the Legislature, Called Jan. 4, 1902 at Great Southern Hotel.

As chairman of the Democratic caucus of the House, in the 74th General Assembly of the state of Ohio it becomes my duty to say that a caucus of the Democratic members of the House elected to the 75th General Assembly will be held at the Great Southern Hotel, Columbus, Ohio, on Saturday, Jan. 4, 1902, at 7:30 p. m. WM. BELL, JR., Chairman.

Newark, O., Dec. 26, 1901.

The Bank of France can compel its customers to receive one-fifth of money drawn in gold.

A CAUCUS

Of Republicans on Proposed Cut in Southern Congressmen—Roosevelt Doesn't Encourage Measure.

Washington, Dec. 26.—President Roosevelt refuses to encourage the Republicans in the House who are bent upon reducing the Congressional representation of the Southern States because of the disfranchisement of the illiterate negroes. The Republicans will caucus on the subject immediately after Congress reassembles, and an effort will be made by Representatives Moody and Crumpacker to make it a party question.

Those who favor a reduction are related over the selection of Henry C. Payne as a member of the Cabinet. At every National Convention for years he has advocated a reduction of Southern representation. If Congress should pass such a bill it is likely the President would sign it as a party measure.

EMINENT PHYSIOLOGIST.

Edinburg, Dec. 26.—Sir Noel Paton an eminent physiologist, was found dead in his bed today.

THE PAYNE BLUNDER

CAREER OF THE MAN APPOINTED POSTMASTER GENERAL

A Stultification of all President Roosevelt Has Heretofore Professed—Democratic Opportunity Created.

Washington, Dec. 26.—There are several significant signs in the reception of the appointment of Henry C. Payne to the Cabinet—signs which President Roosevelt cannot wisely neglect:

First—The silence of the partisan Republican press after briefly and ironically congratulating Mr. Roosevelt on his conversion to "practical politics." Not a word in reply to the facts of Payne's career as lobbyist and corruptionist as brought out by the press. Not a word in praise of Payne's public career, although he has been conspicuously in politics for nearly thirty years.

Second—The stupefaction of the independent press that is favorably disposed toward Mr. Roosevelt, its expressions of wonder and disappointment which it regards as, in the face of the facts, a stultification of Roosevelt of "rugged-honesty" fame.

Third—The satisfaction of the partisan Democratic press in what it evidently regards as a revelation of a fatal weakness in Mr. Roosevelt which is certain to undo him with the people and create a Democratic opportunity.

Christmas Eve Dance.

An enjoyable dance was given Christmas eve by Mr. and Mrs. Richards, corner Smith avenue and Evans street. Mr. and Mrs. N. Richards of Hebron and the following gentlemen with their ladies were present: Misses Ed. Frazer, Joseph Nichols, Harry Devoll, Robt. Swartz, John Snelling, Wm. Devoll, Marvin McLain, M. L. Shepard, Wm. L. Greeman, Joseph Hazelton, Frank Taylor, W. Halfew, and E. A. Daily.

THE SICK

Miss Mand Cosgrove is dangerously sick at her home on the North Side. The little child of Mr. H. L. Schilder is very ill with pneumonia. Mrs. Sarah Francis, is dangerously sick from papayasis. Antoine Overfield, B. & O. blacksmith, is sick with pleurisy.

SHAW

IS TO SUCCEED GAGE IN THE CABINET

APPOINTMENT ANNOUNCED AT WASHINGTON.

MR. WILSON WILL NOT RESIGN

At Least For the Present—New Secretary is Governor of Iowa—Cabinet Changes.

Washington, Dec. 26.—Governor Leslie M. Shaw will succeed Lyman J. Gage as secretary of the treasury. The announcement of his appointment was made authoritatively here. There will be no change in the office of secretary of agriculture, Secretary Wilson, also of Iowa, continuing to retain that portfolio. The date of transfer of the treasury department will depend on the mutual convenience of Mr. Shaw and Mr. Gage. Mr. Gage has signified an entire willingness to remain at the head of his department until such time as it may be agreeable to his successor to take hold. It is supposed, however, that Governor Shaw will be inducted into his new office some time in January. It has been known for two or three days that Governor Shaw was slated for appointment to succeed Secretary Gage, but it was not until now that the Iowa executive accepted the tender made to him.

The definite announcement of Governor Shaw's selection for the position of secretary of the treasury gave the greatest gratification to the Iowans resident here. They regard him as a man well equipped for the place and feel confident that the appointment will give general satisfaction. Secretary Wilson voiced these sentiments when asked about Governor Shaw, and he added that the governor was better known to the people east of the Mississippi river than any man in private life west of the Mississippi on questions of finance.

To Senator Dolliver, of Iowa, whose relations with Governor Shaw have been close, his selection for the treasury portfolio gave the greatest pleasure. "The governor," he said, "has demonstrated by speeches delivered before chambers of commerce and banking associations in every important city of the United States a profound knowledge of our theory and mechanism of our banking and currency system. He is not only a student of these questions, but has been for many years a successful banker in selecting him the president undoubtedly acted in a great measure upon his personal familiarity with Governor Shaw's abilities in dealing with the special subjects that belong to the treasury department."

Shaw Will Accept. Des Moines, Ia., Dec. 26.—Governor Leslie M. Shaw was interviewed with reference to his appointment as secretary of the treasury. He still declined to talk at length about the matter, merely reiterating that the president had confidentially asked him by wire if he would accept the position if it were tendered him. He replied that he would accept, but up to the present time no formal tender of the position had been made by the president. However, from the tone of the dispatches from Washington, he assumed the president will appoint him, and that to all intents and purposes the matter has been fully settled. The governor's term as chief executive of Iowa will not expire until Jan. 16. The people of Iowa are greatly elated at Governor Shaw's prospective entry into the president's cabinet, but would regret very much to have Secretary of Agriculture Wilson retire in consequence.

General Alger's Condition. Detroit, Dec. 26.—Dr. Charles G. Jennings, who is attending General Russell A. Alger, said: "You may announce that General Alger has safely passed the first and most critical stage after the operation that was performed on him last Sunday. Of course there will be a possibility of dangerous developments for at least another week, but we do not expect any." For the first time since the operation all the family were admitted to General Alger's room. The general was very bright and cheerful and was ambitious to see more people than his physicians would permit him.

ARMY

Of Sixty Thousand to be Needed in South Africa After Peace is Again Established.

Liverpool, Dec. 26.—The Post today says that General Kitchener has informed the war office that preparations must be made to keep an army of 60,000 men in South Africa for an indefinite period after peace has been established and that draft should now be sent out to be used as a nucleus for garrison duty army.

IN ILLINOIS

Death of Mrs. Mary Dover a Member of Newark Maccabees Occurred December 25.

Mrs. Mary Dover died at her home in Streator, Ill., Wednesday Dec. 25. The remains will arrive here on the 8:05 p. m. train accompanied by her son, Choman Dover, and her mother, Mrs. Graveman. Mrs. Dover was a Lady Maccabee and a member of White Carnation Hive No. 68.

Funeral arrangements have not been made.

THREE DEATHS

As Result of Fire Which Destroyed the Home of a Philadelphia Man Christmas.

Philadelphia, Dec. 26.—Fire last night gutted the home of James Connelly, 3976 Wyandham avenue, and Mary, a 3 year old daughter, was burned to death in her bed. Mrs. Mary Connelly whose back was broken by leaping from the second story window died in the hospital today and Harry aged two months, is also dying. The father is badly burned but he will recover.

STONED

And Cursed—General Gomez' Experience in the Cuba Campaign—Meeting Broken Up.

Havana, Dec. 26.—According to telegrams printed in the Senor Estrada Palma official organ, General Gomez is failing badly on his political tour in favor of Palma. In the Puerto Principe province his meetings have been broken up, he has been greeted with shouts of "traitor" and stones have been thrown at him. General Gomez is mounted on the same horse he used during the war and is accompanied by a band and a number of veterans. The Maso feeling is running strong in Puerto Principe. The Nation says Gomez is paid by the government to stomp the country. He is met with that accusation on every hand. Maso's followers have withdrawn every one of their candidates and the feeling at some points is bitter.

Million Dollar Fire. Mexico City, Dec. 26.—Word reaches here from Merida, Yucatan, that a great fire has been raging at Progreso, starting in the warehouses of Eshavone brothers, and spreading to the warehouse of Gabriel Escalante and the consignment department of the Merida railway. Some 10,000 bales of henequen were exposed to the flames and it is believed much of it has been destroyed. The loss is estimated at $1,000,000.

Irish Land Bill. London, Dec. 26.—The Daily News gives it as a rumor that the government is preparing an Irish land bill providing an equivalent to compulsory purchase. It is believed that the measure provides that the tenant may buy at 17 and the landlord sell at 20 years purchase, the state providing the payment of the three years difference.

Poison In Beef. Cheyenne, Wyo., Dec. 26.—Eighty members of company E, Eighteenth infantry, were poisoned while eating breakfast, and for a time fully half of them were in danger of death. One man is still critically ill. The post surgeon is of the opinion that the poison was in the beef.

Fatal Fight. Bristol, Tenn., Dec. 26.—Thomas T. Templeton shot and killed Robert Moore, an ex-Confederate, two miles north of this place. Previous to the killing the two men had had a fist fight. Templeton has sent word that he will surrender.

Minister Killed by a Mob. *Paris, Tex., Dec. 26.—Rev. J. H. McClinton, living near Deport, was called to his door and shot to death by a crowd of men. He claimed to have recognized some of them and gave their names to officers before dying.

BUFFALO

Coming Back so Believe the Pawnees And They go on the Warpath in Consequence.

Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 26.—The Pawnee Indians are on the warpath. An immense buffalo hunt was so injured in transferring from the Santa Fe stock yards to Pawnee Bill's ranch, south of Guthrie that he had to be killed. The meat was given by Major Lillie to the Indians for a buffalo dance. The Indians have been dancing and pow-wowing ever since. They claim the vast herds of buffalo are coming back to this country, and many of the Indians have notified the white lesses to vacate their ranches at once, as they wish to lay the fence low, so the buffalo will have full sway of the country. The white people in the remote parts of the reservation are coming into Pawnee and report the Indians are a dying in a threatening manner toward them. The United States Indian agent at that point has been notified and has made a report to the commissioner of Indian affairs at Washington.

FOUR PERISHED.

Mississippi River Steamer Burned to the Water's Edge.

Memphis, Tenn., Dec. 26.—Fire burned the steamer Sun, employed in Memphis and Fulton trade, to the water's edge. Four lives lost. The dead, D. N. Ramey, Old River, Ark., Mrs. D. N. Ramey, Old River, Ark., Mrs. G. M. Timbs, Richmond Landing, Tenn., child of G. M. Timbs three months old. The fire spread with such rapidity that the steamer was a mass of flames when the department responded to the alarm.

The steamer Sun was the property of George W. Phillips, who was its captain, and John Brenner, who acted as clerk. The loss to steamer and cargo will probably reach $20,000, partially insured. The fire originated in a pile of seed cotton on the boiler deck, and was probably started by a spark from the furnace.

AT THE HOME

Children on Christmas Were Made Happy—Friends Remembered the Little Orphans—Program.

That the pleasures of the little ones at the Children's Home are being looked after by Superintendent Kreig and wife and kind hearted people of Newark, was evidenced on Christmas. The usual Christmas entertainment and distribution of gifts took place. A program consisting of music and literary exercises was carried out. On Christmas a turkey dinner was served.

The children and Superintendent desire to thank the following givers:

H. H. Griggs & Co., five dozen handkerchiefs.
H. O. Norris, one box of oranges.
N. Criticos, one bucket mixed nuts.
Griff Rosebrough, one bunch bananas.
Ed Doe, one bucket nuts.
Roe Emerson, half box oranges.
M. Hirschberg, one bucket candy.
John J. Carroll, four dozen oranges.
Last but not least, the little daughter of W. W. Rugg contributed sixty boxes of fine candy for the children.

FIVE

MAY DIE AS A RESULT OF THIS FIGHT.

TROUBLE AT A LITTLE CHURCH NEAR PIKETON, O.

RESULT OF A FAMILY FEUD

Many Were Hurt in the Row Among Them Being Women and Children.

Pike-ton, O., Dec. 26.—A shooting and cutting affray, which it is said, will result in the death of five persons, occurred at Pike post office, near here last evening. Those who are seriously injured are

John Currant, frontal bone crushed and scalp gunshot wound; Lebanon Williams, fractured skull; Orrin Day two bullet wounds; Charles Day, one bullet wound; Wesley Legg, one bullet wound; Joseph Williams, knife wound in lung and stomach.

The fight occurred at the little country church and many others received minor injuries, among them women and children. The affair was the result of a grudge which had been standing between the Legg, Williams and Day families for two years.

PICKPOCKETS

GOT MR. C. A. FINK'S DIAMOND PIN WORTH $240

And Robbed a Man at B. & O. Depot Here of $10 and Several Notes.

Tuesday evening before the departure of B. & O. No. 8 for the east, several suspicious looking parties were noticed at the B. & O. depot and an officer watched them. They succeeded in boarding the train unnoticed, however, and it is said that they left the train at Claypool's, C. A. Fink of this city, who was on the train, discovered after he had reached Zanesville that his diamond pin, valued at $240 had been stolen, and he is of the opinion that it had been taken here before he boarded the train. F. H. McCoy also notified Marshal Vogelmeier by telephone from Columbus that while he was waiting for the train at Newark his pocket book containing $10 in money and four notes, for $200, 100, $75 and $50, respectively had been stolen. The parties who left the train at Claypool's probably did both jobs.

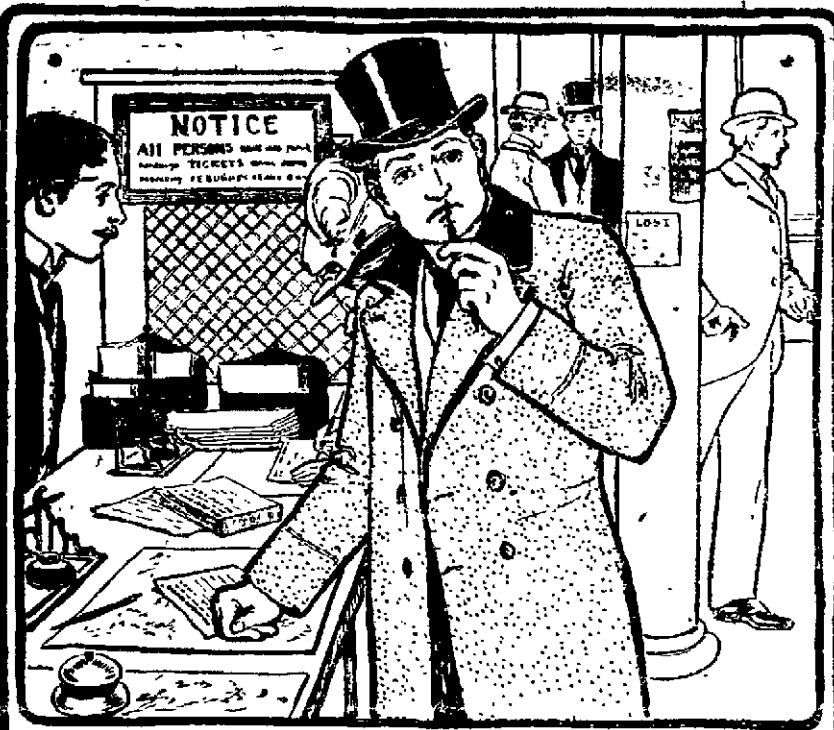

Charles Grill, grocer, was suddenly taken with muscular cramps at his store on Christmas, and was very sick during the remainder of the day.

SENATOR CHAUNCEY M. DEPEW'S BRIDEGROOM SMILE.

Here is the latest photograph of the genial and ever youthful Chauncey M. Depew, whose marriage to the beautiful Miss May Palmer will occur in Paris about Christmas time. The senator's hair may be white and somewhat thin on top, but his cheeks are as rosy as a schoolboy's and his heart is still young. A man, you know, is as young as he feels.

HOW TO ECONOMIZE.

SOME men economize so closely on the number of words in a telegram that the receiver cannot understand it. This is not sensible economy. Neither is it sensible economy to ruin garments of value with cheap soap or powerful chemicals that eat into the fabric. True economy uses Ivory Soap in the laundry. It is the most of pure soap that can be sold for the money. Chemically it is as innocent as water. Yet it does everything you can ask of a soap. Try it!

REV. F. M. PITKIN

RESIGNED PASTORATE OWING TO ILL HEALTH.

Edleblute—Van Warner Wedding—Mrs. Barrick Very Sick—News From New Way.

New Way, O., Dec. 26.—Rev. F. M. Pitkin on account of ill health tendered his resignation to the Universalist church and it was accepted with the deepest regret.

Mrs. Barrick, widow of John Barrick is critically ill and there is little hope of her recovery.

Miss Susie Edleblute was married to Mrs. Van Warner a few days ago. Our best wishes follow.

Gilman Woodworth of Iowa, is visiting Mrs. Chas Woodworth and daughter. Miss Mary expects to return home with him.

Miss Samantha Boyer has gone to Indiana to spend the winter with her sister Mrs. Devilbliss.

The Brushy Fork Sabbath school closed for the winter, will open on April 1. The members were given a fine holiday treat. The M. E. school had a pretty Christmas tree at Liberty church Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Jos. Groves and Mrs. Mark Emerson of Johnstown attended church at New Way Sunday.

COSTLY PLATE.

Some London Companies Have Old and Interesting Services.

Few people, at least in this country, possess plate worth such a fabulous sum as that owned by London's lord mayor during his term of office. Its face value has been computed to be slightly over £20,000, though three times that amount would not buy it owing to the historical interest attached to many of the articles.

The two solid silver soup tureens which are employed at the banquet to distribute 100 gallons of clear turtle to the guests are valued at £500 apiece and are said to have been in possession of the corporation for over a century.

Moreover, there are a gross of silver dinner plates worth £1,500, 200 ice pails valued at nearly £1,000, 200 entree dishes, the cost of which £2,000 would not cover; 80 solid silver meat dishes worth another £2,000, and hundreds of other articles, such as grape scissors, salt cellars, wine cups, waiters' trays, decanter labels, etc., all of solid gold or silver and valued at over £3,000.

This collection of plate is constantly being increased, for every lord mayor at the expiration of his term of office is expected to add an item, the cost of which must not be lower than 100 guineas.

In addition the lord mayor's official regalia is costly in the extreme. The diamond pendant that hangs about his neck could not be bought for £1,000, and his collar cost a quarter of that sum, while his pearl sword necessitated the corporation spending £900 when it was new.

But the other companies in the city possess plate of even greater value. The Goldsmiths, for instance, own the most priceless collection, the worth of which it is impossible to estimate. It includes Queen Elizabeth's coronation cup, for which an offer of £5,000 was refused some time ago. The Fishmongers' company boasts of, among other things, a silver chandelier, and estimates its value have never fallen below £3,250. London Tin-Bits.

THE BATTLE OF LIFE.

Begin life where you are. Go to work earnestly and confidently.

Carefully look over what is to be done.

Keep a cool head and cultivate poise.

Do not be overcome by seeming mistakes.

Do as well as you can what lies nearest at hand.

Only weak people are cast down by apparent failures and blunders.

Sometimes our apparent mistakes help us along more than our seeming success.

Trials are sometimes very expensive; but, then, again, they often save in the long run more than they cost.

Those who win in life's battles are the brave, courageous ones who look upon all experience as being educational.

Meet your difficulties and problems calmly and with a belief that if you do your part they will be solved and overcome in the best way.—Chicago Live Stock World.

Twain and the Rivermen.

Mark Twain once told to a party of friends the following story on himself: On one occasion when he started on a trip down the Mississippi river on a flatboat he was advised never to answer the questions asked by rivermen on other boats and never to bandy words with them, as he would be sure always to come out second best. He followed the advice religiously for a time, but one day he thought he saw a chance to get the better of a riverman who called out:

"How, tar, what yer loaded with?"

"Jackasses. Don't you want to come aboard?" yelled back Twain.

"That's what I reckoned, seein' as how they let their biggest donkey hev their run of the deck," came back Twain made a dive below as all the rivermen in the neighborhood set up a derisive laugh at his expense.

A Lucky Bargain.

It is said that a foreman stereotyper in a London printing works has had a curious windfall. Going to a sale of musical instruments, he purchased an old harpsichord for 20 shillings, because, having a hobby for fretwork, he fancied the wood of the front panel. When he got his purchase home, he dissected it. He then discovered that the harpsichord had a double back, and presently between the boards he found very old Bank of England notes the total face value of which amounted to £30,000.

CHILDREN

WERE MADE HAPPY BY KING'S DAUGHTERS CHRISTMAS.

More Than a Hundred Given a Treat at Second Presbyterian Church—Afternoon's Program.

"Come and see what Santa Claus has for you at the Second Presbyterian church Christmas afternoon at three o'clock."

In response to the above invitation 120 indigent children gathered in the church parlors, as guests of the Whatsoever and Brightening circle of King's Daughters.

The bright and happy faces of the children gave evidence of their keen enjoyment of the happy occasion, and was amply recompense to the King's Daughters for their time and trouble in preparing the feast of good things.

Each child received a sack of candy, an orange, cookie, toy, hanketchief, and either a coat, hat or stockings, besides a book.

The following program was carried out:

Hymn 105.

Prayer—Miss Ashbrook.

Address—"The Child Christ," Mrs. W. D. Fulton.

Hymn—125.

The members of the King's Daughters wish to return their thanks to the trustees of the church, Messrs. Heib, VanBuren, Smith Bros., Sturgeon, Conrad, Linehan Bros., Brownes Sons, A. C. Dickinson, John Ankele, George, Pittsburg Store, Candy Kitchen, Griggs, J. J. Carroll, Stephan, Thome, Welant, Hansberger, Fleek & Neel, Meyer Bros., W. A. Veach, J. M. Maylone, Roe Emerson, Ashbrook, Miss Sarah Buckingham, Mrs. Morris, Miss Minnie Williams, Miss Helen Thomas, Mrs. Ward, Mrs. A. F. Crayton, Miss Kate Gilbert, Miss Lillian Garber, Mr. E. Bates, the Inasmuch Circle of King's Daughters and all others who assisted in making the affair a success.

AT FIRST METHODIST.

The hearts of about forty poor children of the city were made glad on Christmas evening by a Christmas party given by the Sunshine Circle of King's Daughters at the First M. E. church. A Christmas tree, trimmed with candies and toys, had been prepared, and at the close of a short program, Santa Claus appeared and distributed the presents and each little one went home loaded with gifts. The Circle desires to return thanks to those who so kindly contributed for the occasion.

GERMAN LUTHERAN.

The annual Christmas exercises of the German Lutheran Sunday School, Rev. Al. Schleiffer, Superintendent, were held at the church on Christmas night, and were a great success. The church was crowded. All were greatly pleased with the exercises. There was a fine Christmas tree, sixteen feet tall, which was lighted with candles, and handsomely trimmed. Each scholar was presented with a book and sack of candy. The program consisted of musical and literary selections.

ST. PAUL'S CHRISTMAS SERVICE

It is safe to say that no more churchly program and one fuller of Christmas joy could have been rendered than the program of St. Paul's Christmas night. Through it, all was the true Christmas spirit! The announcement and manger tableaux with angels, shepherds, Joseph, Mary and the Babe were beautiful and impressive. Miss Shauk's voice was heard to good advantage. The choruses, unison songs and male voices parts were given effectively with the assistance of the Sunday School orchestra, which played for the first time in public. The offering for charity was large. Over 250 gifts were presented to the scholars.

CHRISTMAS EXERCISES.

The North End Mission Sunday School will hold its Christmas exercises Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Schaus and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Desormonx and daughter, Pearl, of Springfield, Ohio were guests of Mr. L. P. Schaus of North Third street.

IN OLDEN TIMES.

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently overcome habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system. Buy the genuine, made by the California Fig Syrup Company.

B. & O. CHANGES

SEVERAL ANNOUNCED FOR FIRST OF THE YEAR.

Middle Division Will be Known as the Newark Division Hereafter—The Circulars.

A number of changes will take effect in the management of the B. & O. from January 1st, the principal one as effecting this city being that after January 1st, the division now known as the Midland Division will be called the Newark division, and all other divisions will be known by the name of the cities, which are terminal points.

A circular dated January 1, 1902, has been received at the B. & O. offices here, and a number of changes have been made.

The following named properties will be merged into the B. & O. system, and the jurisdiction of the general officers is extended over the same.

The Pittsburg Junction, Pittsburg & Western, Pittsburg, Cleveland & Toledo, Pittsburg, Painesville & Fairport, Cleveland Terminal & Valley, Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling, and Ohio & Little Kanawha.

David Lee is appointed consulting engineer with headquarters at Zanesville.

H. O. Dunkle is appointed Superintendent of the New Castle division, headquarters at New Castle, Pa.

M. L. Byers is appointed Engineer Maintenance of Way, and will assist the Chief Engineer.

The Newark Division is as follows: The line from Bellaire, inclusive, to Midland City inclusive, Shawnee to Sandusky exclusive Chicago Junction yards; Zanesville to Marietta and branches with division headquarters at Newark, Ohio. The Chicago Junction yards are attached to the Chicago division.

The Division Engineers will report to and receive instructions from the division superintendents.

Robert Finney is appointed general agent with headquarters in Allegheny, Pennsylvania.

The Ohio & Little Kanawha railroad will be operated as part of the Newark division.

W. R. Woodford, general superintendent will have jurisdiction over the Pittsburg, Connellsville, Cleveland, New Castle, and Newark divisions with headquarters in Pittsburg. J. T. Johnson is appointed Superintendent of the Cleveland Division, headquarters in Cleveland.

STEADY, STRENGTH, SLEEP.

These Are Three Words to Conjure With—They Are Closely Connected With Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills, Says a Newark Citizen.

Steady nerves, refreshing sleep, renewed strength, these are a trio that practically control the enjoyment of life, they are the keystones of the arch perfecting manhood and womanhood to the fullness of life. Mrs. W. Bates of No. 113 South Sixth street, Newark, Ohio, says: "Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I know are excellent because they made my nerves steady, gave me strength and good restful sleep, three things I needed badly. The action was easy and rapid and more than satisfactory and I am right glad in the face of the fine results I obtained that C. T. Bricker of the City Drug Store called my attention to the medicine."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills are sold at 50 cents a box at dealers or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Company, Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

Mrs. Speer's class will dance until 12 o'clock on Monday evening Dec. 26 at Brennan's Hall. 12-26-21

Arthur Weston is able to be out again.

Messrs Moore and Daugherty of Cambridge, accompanied by their wives visited Mrs. Geo. Floyd, Christmas day.

Mrs. Bessie Levers of Spring Boro, Wyo., and Miss Myrtle Long of Omaha, Neb., will arrive in the city this evening and will be the guests of their grandmother Mrs. Isabelle McCahon, for a few days.

STORM BLOWS OVER

An Agreement Signed Between Argentina and Chile.

PRESENT DANGER OF WAR AVERTED.

Governments Officially Announce the Acceptance of the Protocol, but the Preparations For Hostilities Continue—Developments In the Dispute Between Bolivia and Peru.

Santiago de Chile, Dec. 26.—After a fresh conference between President Riesco, Foreign Minister Yanez and Senor Portela, the Argentine minister, the new agreement was signed, the latest modifications to the former proposals being accepted.

The government has officially confirmed the statement that the new agreement has been signed, putting an end to the conflict between the two nations.

Warlike Preparations.

Buenos Ayres, Dec. 26.—The newspapers say the new protocol between Chile and Argentina dispels the immediate danger of war but that the remedy is not permanent. It is reported that the protocol has been signed. The armies of the two countries are, meanwhile, continuing their warlike preparations. Chile has decided upon the erection of new fortifications at Talcahuano and Punta Arenas. At a secret session of the Chilean senate the government demanded authority for the expenditure of $15,000,000 in preparations for defence. The sitting was an exciting one. It was finally decided to authorize the floating of a loan for the purpose.

Peru and Bolivia.

Lima, Peru, Dec. 26.—Advices from La Paz (capital of Bolivia) say congress closed Monday without sanctioning the treaty of arbitration in the matter of the controversy regarding the boundary between Peru and Bolivia, but that secret sessions of congress sanctioned the contract with a Bolivian company formed in London for the leasing of territory in Acre.

Two Are Dead and a Third Dying. Vent Obstructed.

Fort Wayne, Ind. Dec. 26.—Two are dead and one will die as the result of asphyxiation at the residence of George Schaffer, a wealthy retired grocer, living on Broadway. The dead are: George Schaffer, 65; Anna James. The dying: Henry Anderson, 60. A nephew of Schaffer, his only relative, went to the house with Christmas presents. He found the place locked and forced an entrance and the bodies of the James woman and Anderson were found in the upper part of the house. The woman was dead, but Anderson still showed signs of life and was taken to the hospital. The physician says he cannot live. An investigation by the police showed that the chimney flue was obstructed with soot and the burned gas had filled the house which was tightly closed.

Germany Yields.

Berlin, Dec. 26.—The government, yielding to Russia's uncompromising attitude regarding the tariff bill, will propose, when the committee having the matter in charge meets, that the minimum grain duties be stricken out. These minimum duties were put in through the influence of the Agrarians, who desired to fix a limit under which concessions could not be made in the commercial treaty negotiations. The elisions leave the ministry free to meet the views of Russia respecting grain and hay. Thus far it has not made any representations concerning the tariff, being advised to wait until it was seen in what form the measure would be apt to pass.

Move of Sewer Pipe Men.

Pittsburg, Dec. 26.—The manufacturers of sewer pipe have within the past week perfected an arrangement which will place the entire trade of the United States in the hands of a set of dealers who will be recognized as manufacturers' agencies and will sell their stock on the commission plan. These agencies are to be established in New England, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, and through the West in selected districts. The price list is to be uniform all over the country and will be regulated by the manufacturers who have formed a general association and will hold meetings at regular intervals.

Leading Financier.

Chicago, Dec. 26.—Dunlap Smith a leading financier and real estate dealer of this city, died of pneumonia. He was the youngest son of Perry H. Smith, who was one of Chicago's wealthiest citizens during the seventies and eighties. Dunlap Smith inherited a large fortune from his father and increased it largely through his real estate operations.

Emperor William's Deed.

Berlin, Dec. 26.—Emperor William, while walking in the environs of Potsdam, tossed several three and four mark pieces to poor looking persons whom he passed. The emperor's Christmas bounty is never limited, but this year he has doubled his usual subscriptions to charitable funds.

Cleveland Better.

Princeton, N. J., Dec. 26.—Former President Cleveland's condition is if anything, more favorable. He showed a greater disposition to move about, and while he did not attempt to come downstairs and take part in his children's Christmas, he showed considerable interest in the gifts.

State Treasurer.

New York, Dec. 26.—George B. Swain, treasurer of the state of New Jersey since 1894, died at his home in Newark.

AMUSEMENTS.

BROS. ROYER IN "NEXT DOOR."

This famous organization comes to the Auditorium tonight. "Next Door" is the merriest of farcial creations and will be seen here with the largest, strongest and most potent cast ever seen in this furiously funny conception.

The theme is the same as in former years, but there is not a semblance to the "Next Door" as of yore. The Royer Troupe of Acrobats famous throughout the world, are the main-sail for the equipment necessary for a delightful entertainment. Auditorium tonight.

THE BRITTON BURGLARY.

During the recent engagement of this comedy success attained in New York last spring was duplicated and the theatre here was crowded nightly with fashionable folks who had heard of the charm of this comedy; many were pleasantly surprised to find it a farce comedy and not a melo-drama as the name seems to indicate; it was found to be most jovial in character, the complications hinging upon the escapades of a couple of married men whose wives were away from home, and those of a man-servant and a maid who go out for a lark, the one in a suit of his master's clothing, and the other upon her master's wheel. The man-servant falls into the hands of a burglar who is shadowed by the police; the burglar compels him to change suits with him, and this eventually lands the innocent servant in jail, and a note transferred to his pocket involves his master in suspicion of the robbery. Breeziness is lent by "The Bounding Sisters of the Air" with whom the gay husbands go supping. The comedy is bright throughout and contains many original characterizations among which are, a new mother-in-law, a man-servant, a maid servant, and a policeman, all of which are capital types.

One thing which adds distinction to the offering next week is the personnel of the company, every member of which is well known to Brooklyn theatre goers. The original Herald Square Theatre production and the principal members of the original cast will be seen at the Auditorium tomorrow night.

BRITISH VS. AMERICAN BUGLERS.

The piercing brazen sound of the British military bugle as compared with the soft smoothness of the American trumpet has been remarked by visitors to Great Britain. The British bugles will be used by the four buglers who play at the head of the Killes' band when they march up town from their private car, Hielan's Laddie, at noon on Monday Dec. 30, arrayed in their unique regimentals. These buglers alternate with the bagpipers in the bands street march, but His Majesty's Scottish-Canadian soldiers do not carry their band instruments these being reserved, of course for their concerts.

COMING NEXT WEEK.

The "All a Mistake" company which will appear at the Auditorium on Tuesday night, Dec. 31, comes to the city most highly recommended. The play is one which will appeal to the most tender, as well as the most passionate feeling of the average play goer.

The company is under the management of Mr. Charles O. Porter, who is now connected with the Warden cafe.

Saw Death Near.

"It often made my heart ache," writes L. C. Overstreet, of Elgin, Tenn. "to hear my wife cough until it seemed her weak lungs would collapse. Good doctors said she was so far gone with Consumption that no medicine or earthly help could save her, but a friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery and persistent use of this excellent medicine saved her life." It is absolutely guaranteed for coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma and all throat and lung diseases. 50c and $1.00 at Hall's drug store. 12

HEBRON MASONS

ENJOYED A BANQUET AFTER THE INSTALLATION.

Mr. Geo. Bomgardner Had Been Treasurer of the Lodge 21 Years—A Fine Spread.

Hebron, O., Dec. 26.—Hebron Lodge No. 116 F. & A. M., met in the hall at regular meeting Dec. 24, 1901 and after the routine business the following officers were installed by Past Master F. E. Slabaugh.

W. H. Smith—W. M.
D. A. Taylor—J. W.
G. N. Browne—J. D.
A. M. Parrish—S. W.
N. C. Browne, Jr.—S. D.
H. D. Burch and P. E. Tygard Stewards.

M. Kelsey—Sec.

Geo. Bomgardner—Treasurer.

After the ceremony Bros. Geo. Bomgardner asked to be relieved from the office of Treasurer as he had held that office continuously for 21 years, and as he was becoming old he desired to retire from office. W. H. Smith, W. M., appointed C. A. Pence to fill the vacancy. After some remarks from Joseph Brownfield and Rev. Mr. Rogers and other visiting brethren, it was announced that the ladies of the Eastern Star had a banquet spread for the hungry craftsmen accordingly lodge was closed forthwith and about fifty Masons and their ladies sat down to a feast that would have gladdened the heart of King Solomon of old. All the arts of cookery were brought forward in the spread and preparation of the banquet, and it seemed to be the banquet of kings and royalty than of free American Free Masons. Every one did royal justice to the viands and where all were fed there was enough remaining for another banquet. All praised the ladies of the Eastern Star and especially were they complimented by Brothers C. A. Pence and P. E. Tygard. It was a great feast and was enjoyed the more because of the love and harmony which prevailed.

Johnnie—What does it mean by "seeing the humorous and the serious side of things?"

Father—Well, my son, take a bit of orange peel, for example. How many sides has it?

Johnnie—Why, two, of course.

Father—Exactly. And when some other man steps on that orange peel he sees the serious side of it and you see the humorous side.—London Titts.

CHOIR

Of First Presbyterian Church With Pastor Boyce Visited Sick on Christmas Morning.

Christmas morning the pastor, Rev. L. S. Boyce, and the choir of the First Presbyterian Church, as far as was possible, visited the sick members of the church, and all who were confined to their homes from whatever cause. They started at 5 o'clock in Hurbaugh's big wagon and were out until about 8 o'clock. At each place the choir sang several Christmas hymns and carols, messages of hope and cheer, which were greatly appreciated by those who heard them.

Colossal Trolley Scheme.

Indianapolis, Dec. 26.—A report has been received here from New York that Hugh J. McGowan, president of the Indianapolis Street Railway company is prominent among men behind plans that are now being made for a trolley system to connect New York and St. Louis. The scheme, it is reported, is even broader in scope than that of the great Everett-Moore syndicate, whose system is being extended to connect all of the principal cities on the great lakes. The Murdocks, of La Fayette, and Frank De Haas Robinson, of Cleveland, it is said, are associated with Mr. McGowan, and it is reported that the plan was well developed during the recent visit of Mr. McGowan to New York.

Christmas in Paris.

Paris, Dec. 26.—The weather was fine and the boulevards were thronged all day long by animated crowds of promenaders, visiting the toy fair. American children in Paris were benefited by the kindness of Mr. and Mrs. Michael H. De Young, of San Francisco, who gave a fete in their apartments at the Continental hotel. An immense Christmas tree laden with glittering toys had been erected in one of the rooms. United States Ambassador Porter and Mrs. Porter and Consul General Gowdy and Mrs. Gowdy were present at the distribution of gifts.

Cubans Dine Navy Officers.

Havana, Dec. 26.—A banquet was given to the officers of the United States fleet by the Cuban veterans

It was a grand demonstration of gratitude on the part of the Cubans toward the American navy. General Carlos Garcia presided. Governor General Wood, in proposing a toast to the future republic said that when the fleet came again it would find a stable government in Cuba. Rear Admiral Higginson thanked the Cubans for their grand outpouring of hospitality and said the presence of the fleet had no special significance and certainly no political one.

Cotton Mill Burned.

Florence, S. C., Dec. 26.—The cotton mill plant owned by the Virginia-Carolina Chemical company with 500 tons of cottonseed and products and four freight cars of the Atlantic Coast Line railroad were burned. The value of the mill plant is estimated at $40,000, and the value of stock on hand including manufactured products is $40,000. Insurance on mill buildings and machinery $16,000, on stock about $10,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Omega Oil

How It Looks

It is important that you should know how Omega Oil looks, so we print a picture of it here. The printing on the package is all in green ink. The trade mark is a leaf, with the words, "Omega Oil. It's Green." Down near the bottom is the signature—Higinio Espinosa. Look for this name, because it is a guarantee that you are getting the genuine Omega Oil, that has cured so many cases of Rheumatism, Sore Throat, Cold in the Chest, Neuralgia, Stiff Joints, Sprains, Weak Backs, Strains and Bruises. There are a lot of other liniments that may be bought in drug stores, and a few of them are pretty good, too, but you of course want the safest and surest remedy, so you buy nothing but Omega Oil when you have a pain or ache in flesh, muscles or joints. Never mind where the pain is, for the Oil cures in one part of the body just as well as in another. 50c. a bottle.

CARNIVAL OF CRIME.

Homicidal Mania Accelerated by Holiday Excesses.

DOZENS OF CASES ARE RECORDED.

Race Riot at New York Responsible For Broken Heads and Wholesale Arrests—Triple Killing in the South. Son Drops His Father—Other Fatal Brawls and Duels.

Brazil, Ind., Dec. 26.—In defending his mother from an assault by her drunk-crazed husband, Theodore Watkins, 18 (colored), shot and killed his father, at their home on South Forest avenue. Richard Watkins, in an intoxicated condition, came home and began abusing his family. He picked up a hatchet and started after his wife, saying he was going to kill her and attempted to strike her on the head with the weapon. Theodore, the eldest son, ran into an adjoining room and returned with a 38 calibre revolver, which he fired at his father. The bullet took effect near the heart and death resulted in a short time. The son gave himself up.

Race Riot. New York, Dec. 26.—A race skirmish between whites and blacks in Harlem developed serious proportions and kept the police busy for a time. The negroes, 100 strong, were armed with revolvers and clubs, while equally as many whites used stones as weapons. The negroes had the advantage but were driven back into their tenements by the police after they had charged on the whites with pistols and razors. Fifteen negroes were arrested. Four whites, including a policeman, were badly shot or cut. The rioting began when some white boys stoned two colored girls, whereupon a dozen negroes seized the white boys and beat them. The boys, when released, told their story to white men in the vicinity and an organized attack was made on the negroes.

Got His Man. Pine Bluff, Ark., Dec. 26.—Mose E. Solmson shot and killed George Stubblefield. The tragedy appears to be a sequel to the killing of Carl Stubblefield by Meyer Solmson several months ago. Carl Stubblefield was a son of the man killed by Mose Solmson. It is claimed Mose Solmson was warned that Stubblefield had made threats against him, and that Stubblefield went to Solmson's residence armed with a shot gun, but was arrested and placed under a peace bond. Later it is claimed Stubblefield appeared again in the vicinity of Solmson's residence armed with a revolver. Then the killing followed. Solmson surrendered to the sheriff.

A Lively Day. Shreveport, La., Dec. 26.—Christmas day had its trail of bloodshed and fire as well as its joys and revels in Shreveport. There were three killings, all of the victims being negroes, and a fire which destroyed property valued at $70,000. The three killings reported were those of Jack Ryan, colored, who was shot by an unknown; Heziah Ewell, shot and killed by Charles Bell, and the body of an unknown negro was found in what is known as Wilson alley. An examination by the coroner revealed an ugly bullet wound in the right side of the unknown man. No arrests were made in connection with any of the killings.

Murder and Robbery. Hudson, N. Y., Dec. 26.—Peter Helenbratt, a well known farmer of Columbia county who was alone in his house, was shot to death by three unknown men. The men were afterward seen driving toward Catskill station. Eleven shots were fired into Helenbratt's body. The farmers have lately been annoyed by poultry thieves, and it is thought the murder was done by some of them.

After Two Negroes. Birmingham, Ala., Dec. 26.—Josh Williams, 14, a white boy, was shot and killed at Powderly, a suburb of this city, by Arthur Perry, a negro. The negro escaped but the sheriff and a posse are searching for him. Jack Harrison, a white man, was shot and instantly killed by a negro at Commissary, ten miles from this city. A deputy sheriff has been sent to apprehend the negro.

A Terrible Charge. Taylors Falls, Minn., Dec. 26.—Abe Nelson, an old resident, has been taken into custody charged with the killing of his mother, 80 years of age, by splitting her head open with an axe. He was weak minded and had been drinking, but was considered harmless. He is 55 years of age, and alone with his mother at the time. He has been lodged in jail.

Fired Into the Crowd. Nacogdoches, Tex., Dec. 26.—While a crowd of men were discharging pistols in celebrating Christmas a stray bullet struck Mitch Bird, 13, inflicting a mortal wound. The boy's father then fired into the crowd with a shot gun, seriously wounding Ed Lee, Reuben Chandler and Edgar Moore, all negroes. The boy is dead and one of the negroes is dying.

Triple Killing. Little Rock, Ark., Dec. 26.—Three negroes were killed near Wilmet as the result of a quarrel over a land sale. Martin Davis and Jeff Davis, cousins, engaged in a fatal duel. James Thompson, a friend of one of the dead men, was subsequently shot and killed by Arthur Davis, father of Martin Davis. Arthur Davis is in jail.

Deadly Duel. Lockhart, Tex., Dec. 26.—As the result of a duel near Coville, Lon Baker was killed and Jim Caffey was badly wounded. Caffey was brought here and is in jail.

DOUBLE WEDDING

SISTERS FORMERLY RESIDENTS OF NEWARK

Married at Cleveland—Brides are the Twin Daughters of Late Dr. H. S. Sook.

The Cleveland, O. Plain Dealer publishes the following of the wedding of two former Newark young ladies, the Misses Sook. Among those present at the ceremony were Miss Gertrude Sook and Miss Anna Frye of this city. The Plain Dealer says:

The little winged god has been busy in Lakewood, and last evening pleased himself and all the friends of his victims with a dual wedding celebration where only one was announced beforehand. The friends and relatives of Miss Sallie Sook and Prof. Herbert W. Kennedy, principal of the Lakewood high school, gathered at the residence of the bride's mother in Lakewood to witness their marriage. The arrangements for the event had been made upon an elaborate scale, and the union of the two lives was meant to be most appropriately celebrated. Into the event crept an incident of which all the relatives of the parties were in ignorance.

Shortly before the wedding ceremony Miss Letitia Sook, a twin sister of the coming bride, and Prof. Frank S. Musrush held a short conference with Rev. James Taylor, the pastor of the Swedenborgian church at Lakewood, who was to act as the officiating clergyman. He was the only one who showed no surprise, when as the strains of the wedding march stole through the room, and the happy educator and the blushing bride entered the parlors, the sister and the teacher of penmanship followed in their steps and took their places beside them.

Those who were not familiar with the arrangements showed some consternation and not a little surprise at the act, and began to think some things about the fitness of jokes at wedding celebrations, as the solemn voice of the pastor repeated the marriage ceremony, and the responses were made by the first couple.

It deepened considerably, when, without a pause after the first ceremony, he continued, and before the guests could recover from their surprise or fairly comprehend the full meaning of the affair, two brides, instead of one, stood before them.

The second wedding had but its participants in the secret. While it was known to the relatives of the bride that friendly relations existed between herself and Prof. Musrush, and that he was a most welcome guest at the residence, there was no suspicion that anything of a closer nature was contemplated. Their mutual love was known but to themselves, and when one sister began her preparations for her marriage the idea suggested itself that since the twinship had produced even greater sisterly feeling than exists between most sisters, the history of their lives should be made more similar by a wedding at the same time.

The plans were carried through successfully and their desire to surprise their friends thoroughly gratified. When the guests recovered from their surprise the heartiest congratulations were extended.

The brides of the double wedding are the daughters of the late Dr. H. S. Sook, for many years a practicing physician in Lakewood. Prof. and Mrs. Kennedy left last evening for a visit to Washington, while Prof. and Mrs. Musrush departed for St. Louis.

Fraud Alleged. Guthrie, Okla., Dec. 26.—Acting on an order received from the secretary of the interior, government officials have stopped all building and improvement operations at McAlester, 11, until a schedule of values of all property has been prepared by the town site committee. A former survey schedule was found to be false and the secretary of the interior thereupon intervened.

Struck at a Crossing. Baltimore, Md., Dec. 26.—Miss Lucy M. Brass and her 4-year-old daughter were killed by being run over by a Baltimore & Ohio train near Ellicott City. It appears that the child had wandered unobserved on to the railroad track just before the train came by. The mother rushed forward to snatch the little girl out of the way, but both were crushed to death.

Lost With All Hands. Gloucester, Mass., Dec. 26.—Eight men are believed to have lost their lives in the foundering of the schooner Eliza H. Parkhurst, of this port, which was posted by its owners as missing. The Parkhurst, commanded by Captain John D. McKinnon sailed from the Bay of Islands, N. F., Nov. 24, for this port with a crew of six men and one passenger, Lawrence McDonald of this city. The boat carried a cargo of herring. A gale sprang up Nov. 25 and in it the Parkhurst is believed to have foundered.

Perished in a Fire. Philadelphia, Dec. 26.—One child was burned to death, its parents were seriously injured and two other young children were slightly injured in a fire at the home of James H. Connelly, on Wyandising avenue. After the flames had been extinguished the charred body of Mary Connelly, 4 years old, was found in a second story room. It is not yet known whether the parents will recover from their injuries.

Postmaster Assassinated. Water Valley, Miss., Dec. 26.—An unknown man rode up to the store of Malt Keith, postmaster and storekeeper at Fletcher, Panola county, about 12 miles from here, and calling him to the door, shot him twice, killing him instantly. The man who did the shooting escaped.

Prominent Politician. San Antonio, Tex., Dec. 26.—Colonel R. B. Renfro of Brownsville, a prominent Texas politician and one of the leading Republicans of this state, died at Corpus Christi. He was collector of customs at the port of Brazos, Santiago, during President Harrison's administration.

Barrett's Return.

Mexico City, Dec. 26.—El Tiempo, a clerical organ, says that diplomatic circles and politicians are commenting upon the return to the United States of Hon. John Barrett, and especially when the conference had just begun the discussion of important and fundamental questions. El Tiempo says it is now coming to be believed that at Washington there is discontent over the fact that the Latin nations do not show docility in accepting the leadership of the United States.

DEATH

CALLS ABRAM FLORY FROM EARTHLY LABORS.

Prominent Newark Man Passes Away
—Sketch of His Long Life—Funeral Arrangements.

Mr. Abram Flory one of Newark's most prominent citizens, died Thursday morning at 7:45 o'clock after a long illness of Bright's disease. The funeral will take place from the late home on Eighth street at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon, Rev. E. I. Jones formerly of the Plymouth church conducting the services, assisted by Rev. T. M. Higginbotham, the present pastor.

Interment in Cedar Hill Cemetery. In the death of Abram Flory, Licking county has lost an honored citizen, whose life is well worthy the emulation of those who are embarking in business, without capital, or influential friends. In the truest sense he was a self made man, for while he died in affluent circumstances his accumulations had been gained by industry, perseverance, self denial and the exercise of sound judgment in business transactions.

For over half century he had been identified with those who were instrumental in building up the business and property interests of Newark, and through that period his career has been honorable and progressive.

Abram Flory was the son of George and Mary (Hines) Flory who were born in France, emigrating to America where they settled in New York, where the father died in Buffalo aged 90 and the mother 87.

There were six children born. George, who entered the French army and was killed in a duel, Madeline married a French officer and died, leaving four children, Anthony, a farmer who resides in Ottawa, Ill., Mary who died in Buffalo, several years ago, and Frank, who died in Franklin, Tenn. Abram was the fifth child, of these six, and the father was a soldier in the French wars under Napoleon Bonaparte.

Abram Flory, the deceased was born in Strasburg, France, Oct. 26, 1822 being 79 years old at the time of his death.

Mr. Flory emigrated with his parents to the United States in 1830, and at the age of 13 he entered school in Buffalo, remaining there one year. He was then apprenticed to Joel Auberg, a butcher with whom he remained until nineteen years of age. He then went to New York and sought employment in vain, and from there he went to New Orleans, arriving there with only 50 cents in his pocket.

He found employment, and working faithfully he accumulated $95 by frugal saving, with which he purchased a meat stall in St. Mary's market, when he embarked in business for himself, continuing until the yellow fever epidemic appeared. He then went to Vicksburg where he cut cord wood, for 25 cents per cord, and was obliged to board himself. Becoming dissatisfied with both board and wages he went to Louisville, Ky., where he rented a pasture and engaged in buying and selling live stock.

He was successful for a time, when he became ill. While his money held out he was given good nursing and attention, but when his funds were gone he was advised to go further north.

He went to Cincinnati and found a man in search of a butcher. A bargain was struck and he went to Columbus, where he remained a year and then went to Hebron, Licking county, where he entered into a partnership with Abram Burner, his cash capital being $19.50.

Soon after this he purchased his partner's interest, and conducted the business successfully.

He was told during the campaign of 1844, that he could double his money by betting on Henry Clay, but he lost all. He borrowed $50 of Thomas Cully for 10 days; when the time expired he borrowed the money from James Lyons to pay Cully, and then borrowed from Harvey and S. B. Woolson to pay Lyons, thus preserving his credit.

In 1847 Mr. Flory came to Newark, and bought out Wiley Davis. He gradually added pork packing to other lines. In 1863 his slaughter house, packing and ice houses, with the cooper shop were destroyed by fire, and as he had no insurance he sustained a total loss.

Although in debt he passed the crisis with unimpaired credit. He embarked in business under the firm name of Flory & Havens, in 1872, and afterward engaged in real estate.

In 1841, Mr. Flory married Mary Margaret Hartzell, and four children were born. They were Mrs. Mary Flory, and Mrs. George Miller, both deceased, Mrs. Edward Ferguson, of this city, and Mrs. Daniel Fuller, of Buffalo, N. Y.

November 3, 1850, Mr. Flory married Nancy Woodward, and eight children were born. They were Josephine, who died in infancy, William, now deceased, Jesse A., the well known attorney, Mrs. C. B. Wilson, of Henry county, Missouri, Mrs. P. S. Phillips, Louis, N. Mrs. Josie May Ankele and Mrs. Ellis Jones, who live in Newark.

Mr. Flory was a Democrat in politics and was a member of the city council for four years.

He was also a member of Plymouth Congregational church.

DANCING—Mrs. Speer's school will meet again next Monday night, December 30, to dance until 12 o'clock.

GERMANIA—The office of the Germania hotel on South Second street, has been artistically decorated for the Holidays. The decorations are the work of Mr. Fritz Seiler and Lieut. George Istler of the city police force, and speaks much for their artistic ability. The mirrors have all been framed with cotton and present a very pretty appearance.

BY CLIFF—Special decorations were made this year by the prominent restaurant men. Those deserving of special mention are Al. Bader, of the auditorium cafe, The "Old Homestead," Dean's Grocery, Warren Long, George Fromholtz, Charles Lady, W. E. Brubaker, William Lamb, Martin Burns, and Gus Kern, all of which being the handiwork of "Cliff."

FOOLED THE COLONEL.

The Way Paddy Brannigan Outmaneuvered His Superior.

The colonel, or "Old Daddy," as he was usually called, had a habit of strolling round the camps at most unseasonable hours. Sentries had to be continually on the alert, for nothing would have given "Old Daddy" greater satisfaction than to have pounced on some luckless one who might think the midnight hours suitable for a quiet snooze.

Paddy Brannigan made that mistake once. There in the quiet moonlight he sat, all unconscious of the colonel's presence, his rifle laid against the tent, himself buried in slumber. Gently the rifle was lifted from its place. But some good angel awoke Paddy in time to see the colonel making his way to the guard tent. Paddy missed his rifle at once and followed the colonel with the caution of a prairie cat.

Outside the guard tent stood the wooden rack which held the rifles of the guard, and into it "Old Daddy" placed Paddy's rifle, himself entering the tent to call the sergeant in charge. This was Paddy's opportunity. He grabbed his rifle and was back at his post in an instant. The colonel brought the sergeant outside and ordered him to count the rifles.

"All correct, sir," said the sergeant. "Nothing of the sort. There is an extra rifle there. That I am certain of, for I put it there myself."

"I beg your pardon, sir, but the number is quite correct," again replied the somewhat amazed sergeant.

"Come with me—come with me this instant, and I'll soon let you see what I mean."

The sergeant followed his chief, wondering what was going to happen.

"Halt! Who goes there?" rang out clear and sharp in the night air from the now wide-awake Paddy.

This was more than "Old Daddy" had ever dreamed of. For a moment he was paralyzed. Then he marched straight up to Paddy, gazed into his sweetly innocent face and, with a "Well, I'm blowed," turned on his heel and vanished.—Scotsman.

Absurdly Particular.

"Why did you resign, from your club?" he asked.

"Oh, they were so absurdly particular," she replied.

"How?"

"Why, the chairman wouldn't let me talk just because some one else was talking—as if that made any difference."—Chicago Post.

Deafness Cannot be Cured.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

The Wooing of Renee

BY CATULLE MENDES.

One night Renee saw the dream god in her sleep, and from that time forth she smiled on no man.

Still, nobody knew this for the truth save one old woman who gathered herbs in the forest, and her word would not have been taken in the village, for she was in league with the devil. She knew cures for ills, brewed potions from the wild things growing in the forest, muttered words in an accursed tongue and had far too much of wisdom to be in any way reckoned an honest woman.

It happened in this wise: Renee was in the forest picking up fagots when she chanced upon the old mother hunting her strange herbs. The child was too gentle to understand evil and too pure to know fear, so she said with her pretty smile:

"Good evening to you, mother?"

"Good evening, pretty one!" said the crone, straightening her bent shoulders to look in Renee's face.

Then she drew nearer and, putting her dry and wrinkled lips to the girl's ear, said:

"Thou art too fair to gather fagots in the forest all thy life. Down the path to the right the king's huntsmen ride. Run that way, and perhaps thou shalt see the prince."

Renee shook her long yellow plaits and ran down the path to the right, singing as she ran. The old mother looked after her.

"A good child," she muttered—"good and pretty. Now may God's blessing go with her!"

The king's huntsmen rode all on black horses, but a snow white charger bore the prince. The sun shone on his yellow curls, jewels sparkled at his throat, and his dark eyes flashed like stars. He drew rein and bade the huntsmen ride on before.

"Who art thou, little one?"

"Renee," answered the child.

"Well named!" cried the prince. "Yet I had rather call thee Renee. Wilt thou give me a kiss?"

"Nay," said the girl. "I will kiss only whom I love and love only whom I wed!"

The prince frowned.

"I am thy prince!"

"True," said the little peasant, "but I am not thy princess!" And she turned and ran away, tossing her long yellow plaits and laughing as she ran.

After this the prince rode every day through the forest. Once he met the crone, who courtesied profoundly and called God's blessing down on his head.

"I have seen thy Renee," he said.

"So fair is she that I would make her mine and, when my good father dies, queen of all the land. Now, help me to it, mother, for I see that thou art wise far beyond thy humble station."

"Let her not sleep o' nights," said the old woman, bobbing away toward the heart of the forest.

"Let her not sleep o' nights,"

"What means this gibberish?" exclaimed the prince angrily. Then he reflected, "Should there be truth in what she says? And, turning his horse's head, he galloped through the wood to the highroad, where the king's huntsmen waited to escort him to the palace. There he sought the king and laid bare his heart and vowed he'd throw himself from the rampart's crest if he be not given Renee for his wife.

So the king was forced to give his consent.

That night the prince sent twenty sweet voiced minstrels to the village, and all night long beneath her vine wreathed window they sang the love of the prince for Renee. The girl listened. The words touched her heart, the music swayed her spirit, and that night her eyes were not closed in slumber.

In the morning she was weary and sought the shade of the forest. There she found the prince, who looked into her eyes and made her listen to the story of his love from his own lips.

Each night the minstrels sang under Renee's window; each day she met the prince in the forest. She found him fair and gentle. The lover of her dream had blue eyes, tender as the summer sky.

"But," thought Renee, looking at her prince, "dark eyes can be tender too." Still she said him nay.

"Who not with too much sweetness," cautioned the old mother, coming suddenly upon the prince where he sat, disconsolate, beneath a great tree.

"Music sometimes soothes to slumber."

So that night the prince sent the keepers to beat the royal hounds beneath the window of Renee. All night the wretched brutes howled; all night the keepers lashed their whips, and in the morning Renee, pale, languid, worn with a week's vigil, laid her little tired head on the arm of the prince and could not in any manner say him nay.

"Make haste to marry!" cried the old woman, crossing the homeward path of the prince.

"Aye, that will I!" cried he. "And thou shalt be a duchess, mother, ere tomorrow's sun goes down!"

A gilded coach bore Renee to the palace, and when she stepped forth, clad in her white communion robes, even the unwilling king found her fair, and, kissing her, he called her daughter.—New York Journal.

NEW YEAR'S RECEPTIONS.

Origin of the Annual Levees at the White House.

NEW YEAR'S day has been, from the foundation of the nation, the occasion of a reception by the president of the United States. Before the seat of government was moved to Washington New Year's receptions were among the presidential levees of Washington and Adams, and these have been regularly held since. They have always been attended by the diplomatic corps, cabinet officers, members of congress and citizens. Sometimes much ceremony was observed and at others there has been no ceremony other than a simple presentation, this act being performed for many years by the incumbents of the office of superintendent of public buildings or the marshal of the District. The first reception in Washington, New Year's day of 1801, was held by President and Mrs. Adams, and, though the east room of the executive mansion was unfinished and another room was used, it is stated that all the formality and etiquette of royalty were observed. During the term of President Jefferson his daughters spent one season with him, and, putting aside the etiquette and formality of his predecessors, he abolished the levees, with the exception of those on New Year's day and the Fourth of July. Callers were shown to long tables, where Virginia hospitality was dispensed, and it is said the market bills made were "over $50 for each occasion."

During the administration of Mr. Madison, though the country was in the throes of war, the New Year's receptions were held, at which Mrs. Dolly Madison was the principal figure. Some of them, while the executive mansion was being rebuilt after the burning, were held at the Octagon House, Eighteenth street and New York avenue. Mr. Monroe went into a house rebuilt and newly furnished, and with Mrs. Monroe as the successor of "Queen Dolly Madison" levees, especially on New Year's day, were the features of Washington life. The terms of Mr. Monroe were regarded as those of good feeling, and this fact had much to do with the success of the social entertainments.

During the following administration, that of John Quincy Adams (elected by the house), much of the previous good feeling was absent, yet it was a social success due to the tact of Mrs. Adams, for she not only kept up the evening levees and New Year's receptions, but attended to providing the refreshments served and presided over the frequent dinners. She tactfully avoided all subjects of controversy.

In the term of Andrew Jackson the old custom of holding New Year's receptions and levees was kept up, the wife of Andrew Jackson Donelson being the hostess, and the general, in order to keep up the hospitality to which he had been accustomed, had to draw heavily on his private means.—Washington Star.

NEW YEAR'S IN CANADA.

Interesting Customs of the Day Among Canadians.

NEW YEAR'S is the one day of the year when every French-Canadian woman is supposed to be at home to receive visitors. More social calls and ceremonious visits are generally paid by French-Canadian men on New Year's than on any other day of the year. In the country parts of the province of Quebec this visiting often begins as early as 8 o'clock in the morning. In the cities more than a hundred visits are often made on New Year's day, and there are always some callers who continue their visits on the two following days, though women are not required to remain in to receive callers on the days following New Year's day. Up to a few years ago it was the invariable custom to offer refreshments, including wine, at every house where visitors were received. Though the old custom is still observed in many instances there has been a large falling off in recent years in the number of hostesses who offer intoxicating liquors to visitors.

Among rival village belles and even young leaders of French-Canadian city life there is much rivalry as to the number of calls received by each of them on New Year's day. The popularity of this visiting is no doubt largely contributed to by the rule which permits the callers to kiss all the young women to whom they are related in even the most distant manner. Inter-marriage is a marked characteristic of French-Canadian society and the circle of relationship is usually very extended therefore.

Among other New Year's day customs perpetuated in parts of French Canada is that known as la benediction paternelle—the blessing of the children of the household by their father. Sometimes this ceremony is performed after the return home of the family from the mass of the day in the parish church. In other households, it is made the first experience of the new year.

Wishes For the New Year.

May happiness and health be thine
Throughout the coming year;
May charms of beauty far outshine
All others, far or near.
May graceful ways and winning smile
Gain friendship, firm and dear;
May fondest hearts the hours beguile
As onward speeds the year.
May music be thy special gift
To please and charm the ear;
May thy sweet voice the senses lift
Beyond this earthly sphere.
May peace of mind, that heavenly peace,
Be with thee through the year;
May Christian virtues never cease
And sorrows disappear.
May all the good this world can give
Reward thee on thy way;
May heavenly blessings, while you live,
Surround thee every day.
—C. W. Windsor.

A SAD MISTAKE

"The most charming girl in the world," said Mr. Baltic emphatically. "That's what all of 'em says," said his friend, Nicholas Peckley, who rejoiced in the glaring fact that he was an old bachelor past all redemption. "It's quite surprising what a number of most charming girls there are. Well, Baltic, I wish you joy, I'm sure."

Mr. Baltic rubbed his hands complacently.

"You see," said he, "she is a rose, as one may say, in the full bloom, is my Myrtilla, just twenty-seven."

"She looks all of that," said his friend dubiously.

"Envious dog!" thought Baltic to himself as he trotted briskly down the street.

And thus meditating Mr. Brutus Baltic turned his steps to the casket that contained his heart's jewel—in other words, the house where Miss Myrtilla Hopkinson lived.

The front door was open, and Mr. Baltic walked complacently in, with the air of a man who feels himself thoroughly and entirely at home, and tipped up the stairs.

"Dear girl, I'll give her a surprise," said Mr. Baltic to himself.

Miss Myrtilla sat at the parlor table, her back toward the door, busily employed in reading a letter, while around her lay scattered pens, ink and paper and the paraphernalia of epistolary occupation.

"One of my notes," thought the love smitten swain; but while these thoughts passed through his mind a board creaked a warning. Miss Hopkinson looked around with a little shriek.

"My goodness gracious!" cried Myrtilla, jumping up.

"I have caught you!" cried Mr. Baltic, playfully making a grasp at the note.

But Miss Hopkinson evaded his movement and thrust the note under a pile of newspapers.

But as she did so Mr. Baltic perceived, to his inexpressible surprise and dismay, that the billet, although in an unmistakably masculine hand, was none of his penning.

"Myrtilla!" he exclaimed reproachfully.

"Oh, Brutus, dear, how you startled my poor nerves!" cooed Myrtilla, tripping forward with outstretched hands.

Before Mr. Baltic could select appropriate words in which to demand an explanation from his sweetheart the tete-a-tete was unfortunately interrupted by the entrance of Myrtilla's married sister. But as they parted on the staircase Mr. Baltic said:

"Myrtilla, when I came this afternoon—"

"Yes, dear," purred the fair enslaver.

"—you were reading a letter—a letter from a gentleman?"

Miss Hopkinson colored.

"Brutus, you surely don't doubt me?"

"Will you let me see the letter?"

"No."

Mr. Baltic banged out of the house. Miss Hopkinson dissolved into tears.

"Oh, dear! Oh, dear! Oh, dear!" she bewailed herself. "What shall I do?"

Mr. Baltic went home in a towering passion of jealous rage and penned a note which would have done no discredit to any tragedy hero in the land:

"False one, I give you twenty-four hours for an explanation. If at the expiration of that period you still persist in refusing to show me your clandestine correspondence, I shall regard our mutual relations at an end."

"I rather think that will bring her around if anything will," he said to himself. "And I won't post it either. I'll leave it at the door myself."

The dusk was only faintly illuminated by here and there the yellow gleam of an occasional gas lamp when Mr. Baltic stalked up to the residence of Miss Hopkinson once more. Two figures were at the area gate—a woman and a man whispering in the twilight.

"Good!" thought Mr. Baltic. "It's Bridget and her young man. I'll give my note to Bridget." But as he approached the dread certainty stole over him that it was not Bridget and her lover, but Myrtilla—and—what?

Stricken, as it were, to stone, he watched Myrtilla give the man money. He heard hurried sentences exchanged. He saw the villain creep away, like a serpent, through the dusk.

Now was the moment for action.

"Woman!" he cried, pouncing forth on the unconscious Miss Myrtilla. "I have detected your maneuvers at last! Quick, give me the packet of letters he handed you! I saw him!"

"I will die sooner!" screamed Miss Myrtilla.

In the conflict the box fell to the ground, its lid separating itself and rolling away. Something clunked out upon the pavement. Brutus stooped to pick it up. It was a double set of false teeth!

Myrtilla sank on the area step, hiding her face in her hands.

"Is this all?" said Mr. Baltic.

"All!" echoed Myrtilla. "Oh, Brutus, I would have perished sooner than let you know!"

"And that—that villain!"

"Was the dentist's young man?" sobbed Miss Hopkinson.

"Don't look at me so, Brutus. It was the dentist's bill. And now I know you hate me!"

"Not at all, dear," said Mr. Baltic, raising his pearl-betrothed. "Let me whisper you a secret—mine are false too."

And so Cupid, the little god of love, folded his wings peacefully above the empty box which had once held Myrtilla Hopkinson's complete set of "uppers and lowers."

Sixkiller's Arm a Deadly Weapon.

"Another man has been killed by a blow of the fist, which suggests the thought that at times the naked fist of a man, given proper impetus by a well developed biceps, is an exceedingly dangerous and destructive instrument," said a man who for many years lived at Vinita, in the Cherokee Nation.

"It recalls a bit of history local to the Indian Territory," he continued. "Not far from the Arkansas line there lived a half breed who went by the name of John Sixkiller. He was a bad man, but not bad in the ordinary southwestern way—that is to say, he was not a 'gun fighter' although he enjoyed a general mixup immensely, and until the Cherokee council intervened he indulged in many such affairs."

"After three men whom he had 'laid out' had died of their injuries the council (tribal legislature) met and passed an act declaring that John Sixkiller's right arm is a deadly weapon and that he is forbidden to use it against an adversary except to protect himself from death or great bodily injury."

Pussy's Sponge and Hairbrush.

Cats large and small make the most careful toilet of any class of animals, excepting some of the opossums. Lions and tigers wash themselves in exactly the same manner as the cat, wringing the dark, India-rubber-like ball of the fore foot and the inner toe, and passing it over the face and behind the ears. The foot is thus at the same time a face sponge and brush, and the rough tongue combs the rest of the body.

PURITY.

Mrs. Lucinda Pound is visiting her son, William Pound, this week. Mr. and Mrs. D. Swick will be the guest of E. F. Swick and wife during the holidays.

There will be a Christmas tree at the Vale meeting house on Christmas eve. A grand good time is expected. All are invited.

Rev. Mr. Day will hold a series of meetings at the Miles chapel, commencing January 8, 1902.

The oyster supper held at the Purity Hall on last Friday evening was a grand success, and all who were present had a grand good time.

Our blacksmith has been exceedingly busy this week.

Mr. A. H. Jones of Newark is in this vicinity engaged in leasing land for Mr. Everett, the glass manufacturer of Newark, and it is understood that a number of wells will be drilled in for natural gas.

The literary held at Concord every Thursday night is proving a good success. All are invited to attend these meetings.

Mr. Charles Fulton has been engaged in making sleds during the past week.

People often wonder how GOODHAIR Soap accomplishes such wonderful cures, even when other remedies have failed. It's simply this: GOODHAIR Soap is just skin medicine in the soap form. The soapy part of it opens up the pores of the flesh, and then the medicine gets right into the skin, where it's needed. That's the way it cures eczema.

BAD BREATH

I have been using CASCARETS and as a result my bad breath has disappeared. My daughter and I were bothered with sore throats and our breath was very bad. After taking a few doses of Cascarets we were improved wonderfully. They are a great help in the family.
